'JAW DROPPINGLY IMPRESSIVE'

Chortle

She's a gorgeous multi-talented thirty-something brunette, he's a handsome well-strung 230-something year-old Cello and together they make sweet music. REBECCA CARRINGTON and her partner, cello JOE have been together for 30 something years.

A singing cellist who tells jokes? A populist cellist who's funny when she sings? The world's only cellist-singer-cum-impressionist? Multi-lingual REBECCA, who performs gigs in English, French, German and Italian happily defies categorisation. However you want to describe her don't risk missing her new one-woman show MANY WAYS TO PLAY YOUR LOVER which promises to be a truly unique and absolutely joyous evening.

MANY WAYS TO PLAY YOUR LOVER is a musical, magical and often manic adventure. From Madonna to Mozart, Britney to Beethoven, Bagpipes to Bangra. French cabaret divas, Russian Opera singers and Hollywood and Bollywood film stars are just a few stops on the way.

'SHARPLY OBSERVED COMIC SPOOF. THIS ACCOMPLISHED PERFORMER DOES A MEAN IMPRESSION OF JUST ABOUT ANYTHING FROM NEW YORK JAZZ TO THE UNMISTAKABLE SOUND OF AN INDIAN RESTAURANT...

CARRINGTON IS AN ACT TO TUNE INTO' The Independent
